

THE ANCHOR

October 13, 2021

Dear neighbours,

This letter is an invitation to attend one of a series of public information sessions about The Anchor, an exciting new development on Merivale Road in Ottawa. The Anchor is a partnership between Multifaith Housing Initiative, an Ottawa-based affordable housing charity, and Julian of Norwich Anglican Church, a church of the Anglican Diocese of Ottawa.

If you would like to learn more about plans for The Anchor – and meet the team of staff and volunteers behind the project – we would be delighted if you could attend one of our four information sessions:

- Online: Tuesday, November 16 | 6-8 p.m. via Zoom (max. 16 guests)
- In person: Thursday, November 18 | 6-8 p.m., Julian of Norwich Anglican Church (max. 12 guests)
- In person: Tuesday, November 23 | 6-8 p.m., Julian of Norwich Anglican Church (max. 12 guests)
- In person: Thursday, November 25 | 6-8 p.m., Julian of Norwich Anglican Church (max. 12 guests)

COVID protocols for in-person meetings: Please be advised that COVID protocols are in place for the three in-person meetings. Attendees must produce a vaccination certificate at the door confirming that they received their second vaccine. All attendees at the in-person meetings will be required to show their photo ID and proof that they have received a second dose of the COVID-19 vaccine at least 14 days prior to the meeting. Additional protocols include at the door symptom screening and mask wearing throughout the session. If you are not able to meet these requirements please participate in the online session.

Please visit www.multifaithhousing.ca/theanchor to sign up or call 613-686-1825 to book your seat. More sessions may be added depending on interest levels.
