National Housing Day: A Call to Action by Multifaith Housing Initiative

We are thrilled to invite you to one of Multifaith Housing Initiative's most significant annual events—National Housing Day, scheduled for Sunday, November 24th, from 3-5 PM. This special occasion will bring together MHI supporters, members, and community partners to reflect on the importance of housing as a human right and to renew our collective commitment to affordable housing.

As one of MHI's three key annual events, alongside Tulipathon (May) and the Annual General Meeting (April), National Housing Day is a time for advocacy, action, and unity. Whether you're a longtime supporter or new to MHI, this event is more than just a gathering—it's an opportunity to celebrate our shared mission, build connections, and hear from inspiring voices in the housing sector.

Expect an engaging lineup of speakers and a welcoming atmosphere where people from all faiths and backgrounds come together for a common cause. We'll look back on our successes, address the challenges still ahead, and explore ways that we can continue making a difference in the lives of those in need of affordable housing.

Join us on November 24th, as we stand united in our belief that everyone deserves a safe and affordable community to call home. Let's make National Housing Day a celebration of hope, solidarity, and action. Learn more at www.multifaithhousing.ca/national-housing-day
