

Renew or Become an MHI Member Today

When a faith community becomes a member of Multifaith Housing Initiative, it does more than support a charity. It joins a network of congregations that believe everyone deserves a safe, affordable place to call home.

With the support of more than 70 faith community members, MHI owns and operates nine housing communities, with a 10th, Odenak, under construction at LeBreton Flats. These housing communities exist because congregations and supporters have chosen to stand with MHI. Your faith group membership helps create stability, dignity, and opportunity for hundreds of individuals and families.

For $100 per year, a congregational membership strengthens MHI's collective voice, expands its impact, and supports the continued growth of affordable housing in the community. It is one of the most meaningful ways a faith community can put its values into action.

MHI member congregations receive:

- A vote at the Annual General Meeting
- Regular updates through MHI's digital newsletter
- Invitations to community events and learning opportunities
- Opportunities to volunteer, advocate, and take part in social justice work
