Members Are the Heart of Our History

Stay connected. Stay involved. Stay a member of MHI.

In 2001, Christian, Jewish and Muslim communities came together in Ottawa in response to homelessness and the lack of affordable housing. That grassroots effort became Multifaith Housing Initiative (MHI).

Today, MHI has nine housing communities and more than 422 homes, providing housing to approximately 1,500 tenants across Ottawa. Free on-site programming helps tenants connect and build inclusive communities. MHI's 10th development, Odenak, is underway and scheduled for completion in late 2027.

Your Faith Community's Membership Matters

For $100 a year, your faith community can join a network of more than 80 faith groups supporting affordable housing in Ottawa. A strong membership base gives MHI a stronger voice with funders, governments and community partners, showing that affordable housing is a shared community priority.
